

Future Leaders Program

If you've identified leadership potential in an employee or have new team leaders and supervisors who have recently transitioned into their role, we can help them build the foundational skillset to become an asset to your business.

The Victorian Chamber Future Leaders Program not only caters to new and emerging leaders but also recognises the importance of existing managers who may benefit from a refresh.

By participating in this program, your key leaders will embark on a comprehensive learning and development journey, equipping them with the skills and insights necessary to lead effectively within your organisation.

Courses are delivered over 3-6 months and are fully customisable to your staff and business. Our goal is to create a program that aligns to your teams' objectives.

Plus, your employee will receive a high-quality digital credential upon completion of each course.

Providing learning and development for your team benefits your business by:

Improving engagement
and retention

Improved
employee
performance

Providing
a platform for succession planning

Enhancing
company
culture
