*Eligibility for a Government Subsidised Place

To be eligible for the Skills First government subsidised training entitlement, applicants must be:

- An Australian citizen; or a holder of a permanent visa; or a New Zealand citizen; AND
- Enrolling in and commencing training in a program provided by the Training Provider between the Commencement Date and 31 December 2023 inclusive; AND
- Physically present in the State of Victoria at all times at which they are undertaking the training and assessment.

The only exception to this 'physical presence' requirement is where a Skills First Student is temporarily located interstate or overseas for a defined period for a Practical Placement associated with their training. During the period the Skills First Student is interstate or overseas, they may receive Online Training and Assessment, provided that such Online Training and Assessment only accounts for up to 50% of the total Scheduled Hours.

Other eligibility criteria

In addition to meeting the above requirements, a Skills First student is only eligible to:

- Commence a maximum of two Skills First government subsidised courses in a calendar year, including if one of the subsidised courses you're enrolled in is scheduled to commence later in the year (the '2 AQF qualifications in a year' limit);
- Undertake a maximum of two Skills First government subsidised courses at any one time (the '2 at a time' limit).
